Terry Lynn Britton

JAN 14, 1965 - JUL 5, 2024

Graveside Service for Mr. Terry Lynn Britton, 59, of Hackneyville, Alabama will be held on Monday, July 8, 2024, at 11:00 am in the Alex City Cemetery. Bro. Norman Strickling will officiate. The family will receive friends on Monday, July 8, 2024, from 9:45am until 10:45am at Radney Funeral Home.

Terry passed away on Friday, July 5, 2024, with his family by his side. He was born on January 14, 1965 in Alexander City, Alabama to the late Lowell Thomas Britton and the late Priscilla Ann Patton Mathis.

He is survived by his daughters, Haley Fomby, Megan Glassburn; grandchildren, Jackson Glassburn, Bentley Glassburn, Bailey Fomby, and Kayden Fomby.

A message from his sister...

"Today I said not goodbye but till I see you again! To know him was to love him! From when we were young, he was the wild child and free spirit. He had a big heart. He loved unconditional. He always lived life to the fullest. Some people will never understand how He never missed an opportunity to enjoy life. He loved his family and hunting arrowheads and collecting stuff! He's had his share of knocks and He's lived his life on his terms. At times, I was jealous because he didn't care what others thought (I think he did, he just wanted what he wanted) and today, as we sat and reminisced about life and all the funny stories growing up with Terry, I was reminded of, even when you know it's coming, you are never ready to say till we meet again... I am thankful we were all able to be together and be with him as he left his earthly home. I know his first stop was to momma and then straight to the fishing hole! I love you brother! You will be missed and never forgotten! Fly high! Please remember our family in the days to come in your prayers as we say our final goodbye."

I met TT when he was 1 or 2 and he was a funny little boy. He could come up with something to make you laugh. He was always kind and well mannered young man. I was very close to all his family. He had some hard times but everyone has problems that are so hard to get through. He will be missed! Prayers to his family.
