Mae Rehr

NOV 9, 1955 - MAY 13, 2024

Mae Rehr, a beacon of love and selflessness, passed away surrounded by the warmth of her family's love. Born with a heart full of gentleness and kindness, Mae dedicated her life to nurturing and caring for those around her. Mae graduated from Benjamin Russell High School, where she sowed the seeds of lifelong friendships and an unwavering commitment to her community.

Mae's professional journey was as heartfelt as her personal life. She cherished the years she spent at Chapman's Healthcare, where she provided compassionate care to her patients. Mae's innate ability to soothe and comfort those in need extended beyond her professional role, as she also supported many families in caring for their loved ones at home. Her work was not just a job; it was a calling that she fulfilled with grace and dedication. In her personal life, Mae was an epicurean of the home, known for her exceptional cooking, baking, and canning skills. She found joy in preparing meals for her family, especially during the holidays, which were vibrant and full of life thanks to her efforts. Mae's faith was a cornerstone of her existence, and she attended church regularly, instilling the values of love and devotion in her family. Family vacations were a source of cherished memories, as Mae loved nothing more than spending quality time with her loved ones.

One of Mae's most treasured traditions was singing "You Are My Sunshine" to all her children and grandchildren when they were young, a melody that would become a tender symbol of her enduring love. Her life was a testament to her faith, as she never missed an opportunity to witness to others about God's grace. Mae's legacy of love is carried on by her beloved family. She is survived by her daughter, Rita K. (Cole Thompson) Rehr of Weaver, AL; granddaughter, Jasmine (Trenton Clark) Morgan; grandson, Cain Morgan; daughter, Ruthie A. (James Michael) Stroud; grandson, Andrew (Katie) McClure; grandson, Blake Missildine; great-grandson, Waylen Clark; grandson, Easton Thompson; great-granddaughter, Brynleigh McClure; daughter, Wendy Michelle Rehr; son, James Eric (Haley) Rehr; son, Shannon Lee (Sara) Davis; and daughter, Kim Davis. Mae was preceded in death by her mother, Alma McGuire, Robert Patterson, Ruth Edwards, Grandma Gracie, and Charlie McGuire, who no doubt welcomed her into heaven with open arms.

Mae's impact on the world was profound and her absence will be deeply felt by all who had the privilege of knowing her. Yet, her influence will continue to resonate through the lives she touched, the care she provided, and the love she freely gave. The world is a brighter place because of Mae Rehr, and her memory will be treasured forever as a symbol of love and selflessness. Her gentle spirit will continue to guide us, just as the sunshine follows the rain. Radney Funeral Home is honored to serve the Rehr family during this time.

This woman had one of the kindest souls I Have ever came across... Every time she seen me, she gave me a huge hug and told me she loved me... I was friends with Her children And when I was around, she treated me as her own. I may have lost a dear friend... My friends may have lost a loving mother... And this world may have lost a beautiful soul but heaven.....heaven has gained a beautiful Angel. We love you and you will be missed!!!Rest in peace, mama Mae.

Mae was as sweet as they come! Could be she had some help from all the sweets she would like to eat but I doubt that. I'm going to miss her asking "when's she going to make those cookies again? Or I'm gonna get that girl to make us some cookies". She knew she asked and I would deliver. Every time I make those cookies I'm gonna be thinking of her trying to sneak into the kitchen for one without anyone knowing although it was known. She is missed and oh so loved.

Mae was indeed a special soul, her presence radiated warmth and love. Her selfless spirit combined with her friendly and gentle nature made our time at Chapmans unforgettable. A genuinely thoughtful and passionate woman, she was not just a coworker but also an esteemed friend, making each day brighter with her smile. We are deeply grateful to have been touched by Mae's kindness and vivacious spirit, memories of which will forever reside in our hearts. Her absence leaves a void that will be truly missed.
