Robert passed away peacefully on April 30, 2024, at Adams Nursing Home. Born on January 12, 1952, in Lincoln, AL, Robert was a man of humor, gentleness, and love, whose presence brought joy to all who knew him.

Robert's early years were spent in the town of his birth, where he was raised by his parents, James Robert Angle and Virginia Estelle Lamberth Angle. His life was one of dedication and hard work, as evidenced by his long tenure at Robinson Foundry and later at Russell Corporation. His commitment to his work was matched only by his devotion to his family and friends.

An avid fisherman, Robert found solace and joy in the quiet moments by the water. He was also a fan of old movies and wrestling, passions that he enjoyed sharing with those around him. His laughter and kind spirit were infectious, making every gathering a memorable one.

Robert leaves behind a loving family: his sisters, Gay Elizabeth Angle, Peggy Angle Narr (Robert), Shirley Angle Thomas (Ronnie) all of Alexander City; his brother, Timmy Lee Angle; his cherished niece, Samantha Jones (Tim) of Alexander City; and his adored great-nephews, Aaden and Jax Jones. His passing is also mourned by many other relatives and friends who were touched by his life.

He was preceded in death by his parents, who instilled in him the values of love and family that he carried throughout his life.

Robert's legacy is one of laughter, kindness, and an unwavering love for those around him. He will be deeply missed, but his spirit will continue to live on in the hearts of those who had the privilege of knowing him.

Radney Funeral Home is honored to serve the family of Robert Ray Angle.
