He was preceded in death by his brother Billy Joe Claybrook. Herbert leaves behind to cherish his memory, his beloved wife of 43 years, Connie Claybrook; one daughter, Karissa Arabelle Claybrook; one granddaughter, Arabelle Dahl Epherson; two sisters, Winnie Lee Mathis (Jamie) and Carol Ann Kornhoff (Ted); and a host of extended family members and friends, all of whom he loved greatly. Although he was an even bigger fan of watching his granddaughter, Arabelle, play travel softball and recreational basketball. In his spare time, he could often be found in his garden where he raised roses and camellias. He loved to travel and created many lasting memories with his family and friends during their excursions. Herbert enjoyed listening to music; especially Hank Williams, and he was no stranger to the dance floor, always ready to show off his jitter bug skills. Herbert will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him. Services will be held at Grace Memorial Baptist Church on Monday, January 15, 2024. Visitation will be from 1 pm to 2 pm followed by a memorial service and repass in the fellowship hall. A second service will be held in his hometown, New Site, AL, on
