Kelli Lynn Holcomb

NOV 27, 1974 - DEC 23, 2023

Ms. Kelli Lynn Holcomb, a beacon of love and faith, passed away surrounded by the warmth of her family's affection. Her life was a testament to the power of kindness and the strength of the human spirit. Kelli was born to the late Roy Wayne and Betty Sue Holcomb, whose values and love shaped the wonderful woman she became.

Kelli's legacy is carried on through her beloved sister, Tammy Brice of Alexander City, AL, and her cherished nieces, Heather Brice, Maranda Brice Brown (Bryan), and Ireland Brice. Each of them reflects a part of her generous soul and unwavering support. Her family was the cornerstone of her life, and her guidance and love will remain as a guiding light for them.

Best described as loving, thoughtful, and faith-filled, Kelli lived her life as a true embodiment of these words. Her caring nature touched the lives of all who knew her. She had the rare ability to make everyone feel special and valued, leaving an indelible mark on countless hearts.

Kelli's faith was a wellspring of her strength and serenity. It was the compass by which she navigated life's challenges and the source of her boundless optimism. Her relationship with God was deeply personal and provided comfort and guidance to those around her.

A life so beautifully lived deserves to be beautifully remembered. Ms. Kelli Lynn Holcomb will be profoundly missed, not only by her family but by all the lives she brightened. Her memory will continue to inspire and her spirit will live on in the many acts of kindness she performed and the powerful faith she shared with the world. As we say farewell to Kelli, we celebrate the extraordinary life she led and the incredible woman she was. Her love and teachings will remain with us, and she will forever be in our hearts.

I considered Kelli a dear friend and she will be deeply missed! Even on the worst days you could always count on her bright smile and bubbly laugh to cheer you up! It saddens me to lose her but Heaven gained a precious angel this Christmas! Her faith in Jesus has always inspired me in my relationship with Jesus and I will never forget her love of Jesus and cupcakes! Till I see you again my sweet friend enjoy dancing with Jesus ❤️ Our prayers and condolences go out to Tammy Brice and family

Tammy & family-we are so sorry for your loss of your precious sister & aunt. Jimmy & I didn't know Kelli very well as we only saw her at church for a short while when she came because that is where the Lord blessed us when our paths crossed. We already knew how amazing Tammy was-so her being Tammy's sister also made her extra-special to us. And-her being a Child of God made her even more special. Knowing we will spend eternity with Kelli is the only fact that makes this bearable. Our love & prayers have been & will continue to be with you all throughout this difficult time & beyond.

Kelli was one of the most loving and God Loving people I've ever known. She definitely lived her life serving our Lord. I will miss her so very much but I know she is singing with Angels now and loving on her family and animals that went before her. This picture was taken with my Benji the day before she left us. Benji and Gizmo loved her so much and looked forward to her and Jennifer Weldon coming to our house. My heart is broken but she will always be in my heart. Glenda Hinkle
