Frances Elizabeth Clanton

JAN 19, 1941 - DEC 3, 2023

Funeral Service for Ms. Frances Elizabeth Clanton, 82, of Alexander City, Alabama, will be Wednesday, December 6, 2023 at 11:30 am at the Chapel of Radney Funeral Home. Rev. Andy Kinman will officiate. Burial will follow in the Fellowship Cemetery - Buttston. The family will receive friends on Wednesday, December 6, 2023 from 10:30 am to 11:30 am at Radney Funeral Home.

Frances Elizabeth Kinman Clanton, a beacon of love and laughter, passed away surrounded by the warmth of her family's love. Born into the nurturing arms of Jesse Mason Kinman and Larosser Kinman, Frances blossomed into a life marked by caring, humor, and a vivacious spirit that touched everyone she knew. Frances is lovingly remembered by her children, Pamela Rowan (Roger) of Dadeville, AL, Rita C. Taylor (David), and Don Clanton, who were the pride of her life. Her legacy continues to shine brightly through her grandchildren, Kristy Teaster (Michael), Kelly Evers (Matt), Blair Gilliland (Mark), Chris Clanton, Holley Johnson (Andy), Tess Clanton, Dylan Clanton (Kelce), Summer Morris (Dustin), and Lucas Clanton. The joy of her sixteen great-grandchildren, whose lives she enriched with her boundless affection and playful spirit, cannot be overstated.

Frances also leaves behind her devoted brother, Tommy Kinman of Daviston, AL, and her sister, Darlene Yates, who share in the family's sorrow and celebration of her life. She was a cherished sister and Nanny, a title she wore with honor and delight. Her daughter-in-law, Josie Clanton, also holds dear the memory of Frances, who welcomed her into the family with open arms. Her journey preceded in death by her father, Jesse Mason Kinman, mother, Larosser Kinman, and her sons, David Lamar Clanton and Dale Kinman Clanton. They were the first to greet her with loving embraces as she entered into eternal rest. Frances's passion for life was evident in the simple pleasures she cherished. Her garden was a testament to her nurturing soul, with each bloom reflecting the care and attention she bestowed upon them. Her laughter often filled the room as she enjoyed episodes of "Gunsmoke" and "Reba," her favorite television shows that mirrored her love for spirited storytelling and humor. Known for her loving nature, Frances was the heart of her family. She spread joy effortlessly and was often described as spirited and funny, qualities that drew people to her and made lasting impressions on all who had the privilege of knowing her. Her ability to find humor in everyday moments and her readiness to share a heartfelt chuckle were gifts that made the world a brighter place.

Frances's impact on her family was immeasurable. She instilled in them the values of love, hard work, and the importance of family bonds. Her spirit of generosity and kindness will live on in the stories shared by her children and grandchildren, the tenderness of her great-grandchildren's smiles, and the cherished memories held close by her siblings.

As we bid farewell to Frances Elizabeth Kinman Clanton, we celebrate a life lived with love at its core. Her laughter, her love for her family, and her indomitable spirit will forever be etched in the hearts of those she leaves behind. We take comfort in knowing that her legacy of love will continue to flourish in the lives of those she touched.

Frances's life journey was a testament to the joy that can be found in everyday moments, the strength of family ties, and the enduring power of a loving heart. As we remember her, let us hold tight to the laughter, the stories, and the love she shared, for in these things, her spirit lives on.

Radney Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.

Summer lit a candle in honor of Frances.

Oh my sweet sweet nanny. You will forever remain in a special place in my heart and my kids heart. Make sure you make all the huge cast iron pancakes for all the kids up there. I LOVE YOU!
