his life. He loved the Lord and his church dearly, and his faith was evident in his actions and his words. He was a man who walked the walk, living out his faith every day in his interactions with others.

Randall was a man who loved the outdoors. He found joy in the simple pleasures of life, like cutting his grass or casting a line into a quiet lake. He was an avid fan of Alabama football, and he brought the same passion and spirit to cheering on his team as he did to every aspect of his life. In the words of the good book, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant." Randall Gene Hudson was indeed a good and faithful servant, a man who lived his life with integrity, faith, and a spirit that was contagious. He will be deeply missed by all who knew him, but his legacy will live on in the lives of his family and all those he touched with his kindness and love. As we mourn his passing, let us also celebrate his life and the many ways he blessed us. We take comfort in knowing that he is now at peace, resting in the arms of the Lord he loved so dearly.

Radney Funeral Home is honored to serve the Hudson family.

When Bro Hudson and Bro Twyman Hughie, and Bro McClellan would meet for men's breakfast at McDonald's, it was always a good time of fellowship...I'll never forget when Bro Twyman told us to pair up with another man to partner with in prayer and to call their name out in prayer...Til this day, EVERY time I prayed for Aaron, or Jonathan, or Modesty, I called out Bro Hudson's name everytime...Really miss him...
