Homer Simmons, a cherished husband, father, grandfather, and friend, passed away peacefully at the age of 73 on September 18, 2024, in his hometown of Alexander City, AL. Born on December 9, 1950, to R.V. and Bernice Simmons, Homer was a lifelong resident of Alexander City, where he built a life marked by love, dedication, and service.

Homer is survived by his beloved wife of 32 years, Teresa F. Simmons; sons Michael C. Simmons, Scott (Brittany) Simmons, and Jody Simmons. His legacy continues through his cherished grandchildren, Michael "Pete" Wade Simmons, Lathan Simmons, River Simmons, Ivy Kate Simmons, Eli Spraggins, Kristina Simmons, Grayson Hunter Simmons, as well as a host of other grandchildren who will miss their grandfather's warm presence and playful spirit; and great-grandchild, Oakley Moynihan. Homer's professional life was as robust as his family life. He dedicated many years to the Russell Corporation, where he was respected for his skill and work ethic. Later, he served the Alexander City Board of Education with the same commitment, maintaining the facilities at Jim Pearson Elementary School and ensuring a safe environment for the community's children.

Those who knew Homer understood his passion for life and the things he loved. A loving and kind man, Homer had a thoughtful nature that made everyone around him feel valued and heard. He cherished the time spent with his family above all, reveling in the joys of playing with his grandchildren and creating memories that would last a lifetime.
