Pamela Kay Haynes

NOV 1, 1951 - SEP 22, 2024

A Celebration of Life Service for Ms. Pamela Kay Haynes, 72, of Alexander City, Alabama, will be Saturday, September 28, 2024 at 10:00 am at Carrville Cemetery.

Pamela Kay Haynes, affectionately known as Pam to her friends and family, passed away peacefully on September 22, 2024, in Alexander City, Alabama, surrounded by her loved ones. Born on November 1, 1951, in East Tallassee, Alabama, Pam's life was a testament to her vibrant spirit and loving nature.

An avid Alabama fan, Pam's rallying cry of "Roll Tide!" could be heard during every game, embodying her enthusiastic and spirited personality. Her free spirit shone brightly through her many interests. Pam found solace in the rhythmic waves and warm sun of the beach, with the Florida Keys holding a special place in her heart as her favorite getaway destination. A lover of nature, she took great pleasure in tending to her plants, which flourished under her care. Her home was a sanctuary filled with symbols of her passions, from mermaids that hinted at her love for the ocean to horses that spoke of her wild heart.

Pam will be remembered as an excellent cook, whose fried chicken and sweet tea were the highlights of many family gatherings. Her recipes and culinary legacy will continue to be cherished and savored by all who were fortunate enough to taste them.

Friends and family will recall Pam's laughter and stories, which often filled the room with joy and warmth. She had a knack for making others feel loved and welcomed, and her sense of humor was contagious. Her loving spirit created a bond with everyone she met, making each encounter memorable and special.

Pam is survived by a close-knit family who were the center of her world. She leaves behind her husband, John Harrison; her son, Gavin Faughender and his wife, Casey; her daughter, Jessica Bassler and her husband, Jonathan. The legacy of her kindred spirit will live on through her cherished grandchildren, who referred to her as BG, Jayde Harrison, Cheyenne Harrison, and Savannah Haynes. Pam's siblings, Deborah Johns and Dana Haynes Sr. along with his wife Marilyn, will hold her memory dear, as will her nieces and nephews, Shannon J. Owings, Stefanie Haynes, Darryl Haynes Jr., Jonathan Johns, Justin Johns, Dana Haynes Jr., and Dustin Haynes.

Preceding her in death were her beloved son, Brandon Haynes; her brother, Darryl Haynes Sr.; and her parents, Jesse Dee Haynes and Mary Charles Haynes, who have now welcomed her into eternal peace.

Pam's life was a journey of love, laughter, and the pursuit of happiness. Her spirit and love will continue to inspire those she has left behind. As we bid farewell to Pamela Kay Haynes, we celebrate the indelible mark she made on the world and the countless hearts she touched. Her memory will be a guiding light to all who knew her, a reminder to live each day with passion, kindness, and a generous helping of humor.
