Eva Elaine Conville, a cherished wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and sister, passed away peacefully on October 5, 2024, in Alexander City, Alabama, at the age of 75. Born in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, on November 4, 1948, Eva was a beacon of love and joy to everyone who knew her.

Affectionately known to friends and family as Eva, she spent her early years in the warm, welcoming community of Tuscaloosa before graduating from Daviston High School. Her work ethic and dedication were evident in her long-standing career as a seamstress in the textile industry, and later as a respected manager at Bill's Dollar Store in Ashland, AL. Eva's love for her family was unrivaled, and she poured her heart into every interaction with her cherished children and grandbabies. Her home was a haven filled with laughter, the chatter of loved ones, and the serene presence of her beloved plants and frog collection.

Eva's legacy is carried on by her loving husband, Ronald Ralph Conville, and her sons, Tony (Stacy) Conville and John Conville.
