AUG 6, 1939 - DEC 18, 2024

Graveside Service for Mrs. Betty Joyce Arsenault, 85, of Daviston, will be Friday, December 20, 2024 at 2:00 pm at the Daviston Methodist Church Cemetery. Rev. Bennie Lee Yates will officiate.

Betty Joyce Arsenault, known affectionately as Joyce by her loved ones, passed away peacefully on December 18, 2024, at the age of 85. Born on August 6, 1939, in Alexander City, Alabama, Joyce lived a life characterized by warmth, dedication, and the love she had for her family and community. She took her last breaths surrounded by the love of her family in Daviston, Alabama.

Joyce was a woman of many talents and a well-respected seamstress at Russell Corporation, where her impeccable work and attention to detail were greatly valued. Her career was marked not only by her skill but also by the lasting friendships she forged with her colleagues.

Those who knew Joyce will remember her for her vivacious spirit and her love for the simple joys of life. She found happiness in being outdoors, whether it was cutting grass, tending to her flowers, or simply basking in the beauty of nature. Joyce's green thumb was admired by all who had the pleasure of seeing her garden in full bloom.

A remarkable cook, Joyce could effortlessly whip up delicious meals that brought her family together around the table. Her chicken stew was legendary and will be fondly remembered as a symbol of her culinary prowess and her desire to nurture those she loved.

An avid reader, Joyce also found solace and adventure within the pages of books. Her love for literature was matched by her enthusiasm for bird watching, a hobby that allowed her to appreciate the wonders of the natural world.

Above all, Joyce cherished her family deeply. She was a source of strength, love, and guidance for her daughters, Teresa (Robert Earl) Cotney of New Site, Donna Jo (Wayne) Allen of Daviston, Leisa (Creig Woodburn) Brown of Saint Inigoes, MD, and Wendy Smith of Daviston. Her

Windy, I didn't know your mother but I wanted to say how sorry I am for the loss of your mother. Words are of little comfort when we loose someone we loved so deeply. I pray that you and your sisters find peace in your memories of the good times and in one another. You will all be in my prayers...

I got to know Mrs. Joyce through her daughter Wendy who is a coworker of mine. I knew Mrs. Joyce and I would get along just fine because she shot straight from the hip and would have you laughing within seconds. Her "kick butt" attitude was sort of surprising but funny coming from an older lady. She will be missed by many and may they all find comfort in knowing how much she loved them all because I am sure she knew how much she was loved by them. I am a little jealous because I know that Christmas will be amazing in Heaven!
