Mrs Doris Umphrey Harry

DEC 2, 1937 - DEC 29, 2024

Funeral Service for Mrs. Doris Umphrey Harry, 87, of New Site, Alabama, will be Thursday, January 2, 2025, at 1:00 pm at the Chapel of Radney Funeral Home. Rev. Richard Hall Sr. will officiate. Burial will follow in the Hillview Memorial Park. The family will receive friends on Wednesday, January 1, 2025, from 5:00 pm to 8:00 pm at Radney Funeral Home.

Doris Umphrey Harry, a beacon of love and wisdom, passed away peacefully, leaving behind a legacy of education, family devotion, and a life rich with passion and intellect. Doris, whose heart was as vast as her knowledge, dedicated her life to the noble profession of teaching, guiding young minds for over 28 years with unwavering commitment and grace.

Born to Urias Levextion Umphrey and Macie Lee Umphrey, Doris was a lifelong learner, a trait she cultivated from her early days. She pursued her academic aspirations with vigor, obtaining a bachelor's degree in education from Jacksonville State University, followed by a master's degree from West Georgia. Her educational journey laid the foundation for a remarkable career in teaching, where she not only imparted knowledge but also inspired countless students to pursue their dreams with the same fervor that she did.

Doris's professional life was a testament to her dedication to education and her belief in its power to transform lives. Her association with various educational institutions allowed her to touch the lives of many, leaving an indelible mark on the community she so lovingly served. Her intelligence and faith-filled spirit were the cornerstones of her teaching philosophy, endearing her to students and colleagues alike.

Beyond her professional accomplishments, Doris was a woman of many interests. An avid reader, she found solace and adventure within the pages of countless books, each story providing her with new perspectives and joys. Her passion for doll collecting was more than a hobby; it was a reflection of her appreciation for the artistry and history behind each unique piece. Traveling was another of Doris's joys, a way for her to explore the world and its myriad cultures, always with a sense of wonder and enthusiasm.

Obituary

Mrs Doris Umphrey Harry

DEC 2, 1937 - DEC 29, 2024

Family was the heart of Doris's world. She found her greatest pleasure in spending time with her loved ones, creating memories that would outlast time itself. Her son, Timothy Lee Harry, and daughter-in-law, Terri, of New Site, AL, remember her as the family's cornerstone, a role she cherished deeply. Her grandsons, David Harry, with his wife Jade, and Daniel Harry, with his wife Nicole, recall her loving guidance and the joy she took in their accomplishments. Doris's great-grandchildren, Weston Harry and Braxton Sims, will know her through the stories and the legacy of love she leaves behind. Her brother, Alva Coys Humphrey, along with a host of nieces, nephews, and extended family, will miss her wise counsel and gentle presence.

Preceded in death by her beloved husband, Jimmie Lee Harry, her father, Urias Levextion Umphrey, her mother, Macie Lee Umphrey, and her brother, Ulen Umphrey, Doris now joins them in eternal peace. Her passing marks not an end, but a continuation of her spirit through the lives of those she influenced.

Doris Umphrey Harry's life was a puzzle beautifully put together, piece by piece, with love, intelligence, and faith. Her legacy will continue to inspire and guide us, as we remember her for the remarkable woman she was. Her memory will live on, not only in the family she adored but also in the countless students she guided with such loving dedication. Doris's story is one of triumph, love, and the enduring power of education, a story that will be told for generations to come.
