She married her beloved husband, Joseph Harold Scott, affectionately known as Red, while he was still serving in the Navy. Together they raised five wonderful children. Her life was a beautiful narrative of devotion, as she was the proud mother of Jacque Scott (Steve) Martin, Jeanne Scott (David) Patterson, J. David Scott, Jay Scott, and Jan Scott (Jimmy) Rhodes. Her ladies lunch bunch was a highlight where she shared laughter and stories with her closest friends. A creative soul, she found joy in crafting, a hobby that allowed her to express her artistic side and create beautiful memories. The sight of hummingbirds fluttering in her garden brought her immense pleasure, a simple yet profound reminder of the beauty of life.

Jacqueline was known for her generosity, thoughtfulness, and loving nature. She had a gift for making those around her feel valued and loved, and her presence was a source of comfort and strength.
