Raymond L. Hendrix, known affectionately as Raymond “Pawpaw” to his friends and family, peacefully passed away on April 2, 2025, at the age of 90. Born on October 21, 1934, Raymond's life was marked by devotion, humor, and compassion, qualities that endeared him to all who were fortunate to cross his path.

Raymond's enduring love story began with his beloved wife, Laurel E. Hendrix, with whom he built a life full of laughter and shared dreams in Alexander City, AL. Raymond and Laurel celebrated 68 years of marriage. Together, they raised a family that became Raymond's pride and joy: his sons, Raymond Glenn Hendrix of Goodwater, AL, and Gary L. (Linda) Hendrix of Alexander City, AL; his daughter, Gaylon Hendrix (Jason) Buivids of Jacksons Gap, AL. He was a cherished pawpaw to Steven (Tara) Hendrix, Eric (Taylor) Hendrix, Wesley (Paige) Hendrix, Adam (Michelle) Hendrix, Amanda (Spencer) MaGill, Lauren Henderson, and Erika Buivids. Raymond's legacy continued to grow with his great-grandchildren, Alex (Cheyenne) Ray, Cole Hendrix, Ethan Hendrix, Logan Hendrix, Dylan Hendrix, Raelynn Hendrix, Stella Pzasak, Bo Buivids, Holden Coggins, Sky Hendrix, and great-great-grandchild, Grady Ray. Each of them held a special place in his heart, and he cherished every moment spent with his expanding family.

Before leaving this world, Raymond was reunited with his loved ones who had gone before him: his mother, Catherine Pearl Hendrix; his father, Ivey Floyd Hendrix; his sister, Mildred Stevens; and his brothers, Coley Hendrix, Willard Rudolph Hendrix, and Gene Hendrix. The bond they shared in life continues as they are now together again.

Obituary

Mr. Raymond Hendrix

OCT 21, 1934 - APR 2, 2025

Raymond's professional life was characterized by dedication and service. For 38 years, he safely transported countless children as a school bus driver for the Alexander School System, a role he took great pride in. His commitment to his community was also evident through his 12 years of service in the National Guard. Furthermore, Raymond's work ethic shone brightly during his 42 years with Russell Corp, where he was not only a valued employee but also a friend to many.

Those who knew Raymond will remember him as a man of great heart. Raymond was an avid Alabama fan and enjoyed swinging in his swing, listening to southern gospel music while enjoying a Dr. Pepper. He also enjoyed old westerns, especially Roy Rogers and John Wayne. Raymond faithfully served The Church of God as a Sunday School Superintendent. He was loving-a true family man who put the needs and happiness of his loved ones above all else. He was funny, with a sense of humor that could light up a room and bring smiles to faces even on the cloudiest of days. Above all, he was kind, a gentleman who treated everyone with respect and warmth, making friends easily and leaving a lasting impact on those he met.

Raymond's life was a tapestry woven with love, laughter, and kindness, threads that will continue to bind his family and friends as they cherish his memory. As we say goodbye to Raymond L. Hendrix, we celebrate a life well-lived, a journey marked by joy, generosity, and an abundance of love.

A life such as his is not ended but carried forward by those who were touched by his spirit. Raymond's legacy will live on in the stories shared, the Sunday school lessons he taught, and the love he gave freely. As we reflect on his life, we find comfort in knowing that Raymond's influence will be felt for generations to come.

The family would like to thank Enhabit Hospice for their excellent care and support.

Radney Funeral Home is honored to serve the family of Raymond LeRoy Hendrix.
