Debbie, I didn't know your mom well but meeting her a while back I knew she loved life. She loved her family and I know you loved her so very much. Cherish the sweet memories of your mom and delight in the fact that you will see her again. While sitting with you and Becky at the hospital and witnessing her last breath here on earth I knew she was already looking in the face of her Savior—our Savior. I knew that in that instant she also had a brand new body. Can't you just see her running down those streets of gold and shouting, "I'm finally home." I love you, my sister in Christ and I'm here anytime you need me.
