Mrs. Jeannie Sue Kennedy

FEB 9, 1942 - JUN 12, 2025

Funeral Service for Mrs. Jeannie Sue Kennedy, 83, of Jacksons Gap, Alabama, will be Sunday, June 15, 2025 at 1:00 pm at the Chapel of Radney Funeral Home. Rev. Jason Watkins will officiate. Burial will follow in the Hillview Memorial Park. The family will receive friends on Sunday, June 15, 2025 from 11:30 am to 12:30 pm at Radney Funeral Home.

A cherished beacon of love and warmth, Mrs. Kennedy passed away peacefully on June 12, 2025, at the age of 83. Born on February 9, 1942, Jeannie grew into a remarkable woman whose life was defined by her boundless love and care for her family.

Jeannie was a devoted wife, a nurturing mother, and an adoring grandmother. Her capacity to love knew no bounds, and she expressed this love ardently within the walls of her home and beyond. Her family was her pride and joy, and she dedicated herself relentlessly to creating a harmonious and loving environment for them.

A long-standing member of Kellyton Baptist Church, Jeannie's faith was a cornerstone of her existence. It guided her actions and provided solace in times of need. Within the church community, Jeannie will be remembered for her unwavering commitment and benevolent spirit.

Bella, her little dog, was another source of joy in Jeannie's life. They shared a beautiful and loyal companionship, with Bella often by her side as they enjoyed life's simple pleasures. Jeannie's fondness for her furry friend was evident in the way her eyes lit up whenever she spoke of their little adventures together.

Jeannie's skills in the kitchen were legendary among her family and friends. A meal prepared by her hands was not just food; it was a gesture of love, a comfort for the soul. She believed in the power of a home-cooked meal to bring people together, and she found great satisfaction in cooking for her loved ones.

Obituary

Mrs. Jeannie Sue Kennedy

FEB 9, 1942 - JUN 12, 2025

Though often busy, Jeannie found time to revel in the magic of Christmas shows and the tender narratives of Hallmark movies. These stories, filled with love and triumph, mirrored her optimistic outlook on life and her belief in happy endings.

To have known Jeannie was to have known kindness, compassion, and genuine love. Her legacy is not only in the lives she touched but also in the lessons of love, family, and faith that will continue to reverberate through the many generations she has lovingly shaped. Mrs. Jeannie Kennedy's life was a testament to the beauty that can thrive in the heart of a devoted family woman. As her family and friends bid her farewell, they find comfort in the memories and the indelible imprint she has left on their hearts.

She is survived by her children, Michelle Livingston of Alexander City, Jim (Shannon) Cossey of Anniston, MO, Tommy Cossey of Coosada, Theresa Hogan of Jacksons Gap, Mickey Cossey of Kellyton, Tina Cossey of Phoenix, AZ, and Donald Sanders of Montgomery; 19 grandchildren; many many great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren; and 9 siblings.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Martha Golightly; husband, Robert Kennedy; and brothers, Jimmy St. Cin and Maurice St. Cin.

Radney Funeral Home is honored to serve the family of Jeannie Sue Kennedy.
