Raymond passed away peacefully on August 23, 2025, at the age of 64. Born on September 10, 1960, in Jasper, AL to Raymond Wilborn Lynn, Sr. and Barbara Staggs Lynn, his life was marked by his kindness, a gentle demeanor, and a soft-spoken nature that drew people to him. Raymond's selfless spirit was a beacon of generosity, often extending a helping hand to those in need without a second thought.

Raymond dedicated many years to the open road as a committed truck driver, a career that mirrored his love for travel and exploration. It was this sense of freedom that also spurred his love for motorcycles, with the rumble of his cherished Harley-Davidson a familiar sound to those he held dear. His free spirit found expression on the highways, where he experienced the freedom and joy of each ride, the wind a testament to his boundless love for adventure.

Beyond his professional endeavors and hobbies, Raymond's greatest joy was his family. A devoted father, he instilled values of hard work and compassion in his children, leading by example and living life with an enviable work ethic. As a grandfather, he exuded warmth and adoration, his heart swelled with pride with his grandchild's accomplishments and laughter.

Raymond carried a lifelong affinity for music, with his soul deeply rooted in the rhythms of classic rock and blues. The songs that he listened to provided a soundtrack for many family gatherings, moments of reflection, and rides on the open road. His musical legacy continues to resonate with all who were touched by his presence.

While we mourn the loss of a remarkable man, we celebrate the profound impact Raymond Lynn, Jr. had on the lives of those around him. His unwavering dedication to his family, his

I will always remember SHEEPDOG, when I got my 1st car, it was a yellow Vega, and the 1st day I drove to school, he got in it and pretended it was a 5 speed even though it was a manual! He flew out of the back parking lot at Benjamin Russell pretending to change gears lol! Thank you for this memory, RIP MY FRIEND! SOAR HIGH HEAVENS NEWEST ANGEL 😊

Writing this on behalf of the late Scott "Scooter" Damron & family . Being scooters youngest daughter there's never been a time in my life where sheep dawg didn't exist, for most of my childhood I honestly thought dad and Raymond were brothers. From rolling coal on the highways, to life going in separate ways, my dad and Raymond always stayed in touch. Raymond brought out the best in everyone, around 10 years ago, we had the privilege of getting to see Ryamond as he passed through Ohio. Seeing dad and Raymond together was like they were in their 20's again. I hope scooter & sheep dawg are rolling coal in heaven together. Rest easy driver. With all our love Patti,Haley & Rachel Damron
