With a heart full of love and a legacy of kindness, Mrs. Pauline T. Neely, an embodiment of generosity, thoughtfulness, and love, completed her earthly journey on September 3, 2025. Born on March 7, 1926, Pauline's life was a testament to the power of faith and the strength of the human spirit.

Pauline's story is one of unwavering devotion to her family and her Christian faith. As a beacon of light in the lives of all who knew her, she leaves behind a tapestry of memories woven with care and compassion. Her son, Chesley Neely, Jr., stands as a testament to her nurturing love. Pauline's journey was guided by her deep Christian faith, which shone brightly through her every action. She lived her beliefs, teaching by example the virtues of patience, forgiveness, and unconditional love. Her life was a sermon of deeds that spoke louder than words, inspiring all those fortunate enough to cross her path.

Her generosity knew no bounds. Pauline's door was always open, her table always set. Friends, family, and even strangers found solace in her presence and left her home richer in spirit. The love she gave was the love she received, multiplied and shared in a never-ending cycle of kindness.

comforting words needed during tough times. Pauline's attention to the hearts of others made her an unforgettable presence in every life she touched.

Pauline's love was her greatest gift. It was as natural to her as breathing and as essential as the air. It was a love that did not judge, did not falter, and did not end with her passing. It is a love that will continue to guide and protect, a legacy that is immortal.

As we celebrate Pauline's remarkable life, we acknowledge the profound impact she has had on us all. She was preceded in death by her father, Henry Grady Tidwell, her mother, Arcatie Tidwell, and her beloved husband, Chesley Burton Neely, Sr. They have now welcomed her into the eternal embrace of Heaven.

Let us honor Pauline T. Neely by living as she did-with open hearts, open arms, and an unwavering commitment to making the world a better place.
