canning, pickling, and filling her freezer with fresh vegetables, skills she passed on to her daughters with patience and love. An avid dressmaker, June also had a talent for creating beautiful garments, a reflection of her creative soul.

Her home was a reflection of her meticulous nature, always kept immaculate. June's work ethic extended beyond the home as she contributed to the workforce at Beechcraft Aviation in upholstery and excelled in retail sales for several department stores. She was a relentless task maker, ensuring that everything she undertook was completed with precision and care.

Above all, June cherished her family, her parents, and her sisters. She was a woman who loved people unconditionally and served her Lord and Savior with every breath. Brenda Davis Smith lit a candle in honor of June.

Aunt June was a lady filled with grace. I remember visiting her and Uncle Grover in Selma. She was a wonderful host and taught me how to make cheese gravy. My mom and step Dad, Earlean and Billy Hill would go over as often as they could to lend a helping hand when Uncle Grover was so sick. She told me how much she appreciated them and that meant the world to me. Rest now Aunt June. I know you are celebrating with all our loved ones in heaven. I pray for peace and comfort for Rhonda, Cathy and all the family.
