Mrs. Bowen, passed away peacefully on October 30, 2025, at The Bethany House in Auburn surrounded by her family. Born on August 4, 1950, in Tallapoosa County, Alabama, Cathy's life was a tapestry of love, warmth, and cherished memories that will be held dear by all who knew her.

Cathy's zest for life was evident in her everyday activities and the joy she found in the simple pleasures. She was an avid fan of classic game shows, often found cheering on contestants and solving puzzles alongside them from her bedroom. "The Young and The Restless," "The Price is Right," and "Wheel of Fortune" were among her favorite television staples, providing daily entertainment and excitement.

A nature lover at heart, Cathy found serenity in watching the birds that visited outside her bedroom window. This simple pastime brought her immense joy and a sense of connection to the world around her. Her love for old country music, especially the tunes of Conway Twitty, filled her home with melodies that are now sweet echoes of her memory.

Cathy's role as a loving and devoted mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother was the cornerstone of her life. Her family was her pride and joy, and she cherished every moment spent with them. Her exceptional cooking skills were a testament to her love for her family, as she poured her heart into every meal. The aromas and flavors from her kitchen were a beacon of togetherness, drawing her family home for unforgettable gatherings.

Her legacy is one of love, care, and the simple joys of life. Cathy's unwavering devotion to her family, her passion for life's little pleasures, and her kind-hearted spirit will be profoundly missed.
