her sewing, as she enjoyed sending cards and letters, ensuring that her family and friends felt her presence even from afar. Her handmade Christmas cards were eagerly anticipated each year, a tradition that showcased her spirited nature and artistic talent.

Not only were her cards a delight, but so were her culinary skills. Jennifer's banana bread was famous among her family and friends, a treat that many looked forward to receiving. Her recipes, like her crafts, were made with love and shared generously.

Jennifer loved her ECHS class of 1955 and helped organize many class reunions including the 70th reunion held in August of 2025.

Above all, Jennifer loved her family dearly. Her life was a beautiful tapestry of the moments she spent nurturing, teaching, and laughing with them. She was the heart of every family gathering, the storyteller who could captivate her audience, and the wise matriarch whose advice was sought after and cherished.

As we say farewell to this remarkable woman, we celebrate the love she gave so freely and the beautiful memories she leaves behind. She was Mimi to all her grandchildren and to their friends. She was truly a special lady who blessed the lives of all who knew her. Our families were brought together through years of travel ball and high school ball, and those memories are some of the ones we cherish most. Mimi and Searcy were such loyal supporters of their grandson and all the boys on our teams. We were fortunate to be part of a rare and special group where grandparents traveled right alongside us. We will never forget her amazing banana bread. She baked it simply to bless others-no occasion needed. It was her way of sharing love, and we all felt it. And every Christmas, without fail, she sent a handwritten cards complete with thoughtful updates about her family. We will deeply miss opening those cards each year. Last but certainly not least we will miss her sweet notes. Many of us have kind thoughts about others but she actually took the time to drop these sweet notes in the mail. Her legacy lives on in her precious family, the kindness she showed, and the countless lives she touched. Mimi had a gift for making people feel loved and remembered. She lived a life that reflected God's goodness. Though our hearts are heavy with loss we rejoice in knowing she reunited with Searcy and in the presence of our Lord. Our family feels so blessed to have known her. So today we pray God's peace and comfort for her precious family. Her memory will always be a blessing to our family and to all that knew her. Love you Mimi 💜
