Mrs. Walker passed away on April 6, 2026 at UAB Hospital. She was born on May 2, 1970 to John Walker and Sherry McCollum Baumgardner. Sugar lived a life marked by warmth, strength, and a deep appreciation for the simple joys that made each day meaningful.

She was known by those who loved her as a woman of steady spirit and genuine kindness, someone who brought comfort, laughter, and a welcoming presence wherever she went. Her life reflected a balance of hard work, devotion to the people and places she cherished, and a joyful love for the outdoors. She carried herself with grace and determination, and she left a lasting impression on all who had the privilege of knowing her.

Mrs. Walker found great happiness in spending time outside, where she felt most at home. She loved fishing the Alabama Bass Trail, and those peaceful moments on the water were among her favorites. She also enjoyed hunting and was always on the lookout for the big buck, embracing the excitement and patience that came with the sport. Whether she was out in nature or simply enjoying the fresh air, she appreciated the beauty of the world around her and the memories created in those quiet, treasured moments.

She also enjoyed the comfort of gathering outdoors to grill and listen to music, where good food and familiar songs brought people together. These times reflected her love of fellowship and her ability to make ordinary moments feel special. She had a way of turning an afternoon or evening into something memorable, and her presence made those around her feel at ease and welcome.
